Please read this section carefully before entering.

Winning this giveaway does not guarantee eligibility for treatment, a medicinal cannabis prescription, or access to medicinal cannabis products.

All winners must first complete a standard medical consultation with a Cannalytics treating clinician.

Any decision to prescribe medicinal cannabis is made solely at the independent clinical discretion of the treating clinician and is based on the winner's individual medical history, symptoms and clinical assessment.

Cannalytics reserves the right to decline treatment where, in the treating clinician's professional opinion, medicinal cannabis is not clinically appropriate or safe for the patient.

The outcome of the medical consultation will not be influenced by this giveaway.

If, following the consultation, the treating clinician determines that medicinal cannabis treatment is not clinically appropriate, the Cannalytics Account Credit cannot be redeemed for cash, transferred to another person, or exchanged for an alternative prize.
